TRIUMPH

PAST . . .

Dr. Robert C. McQuilkin: Founder and President.

Columbia Bible School was established in 1923 with an enrollment of eight students. Only God knew the trials and triumphs which lay ahead and His choice for its first president was a man upon whom He had long had His hand. From 1923 to 1952 Dr. Robert C. McQuilkin, through God's grace a man "always in triumph", was the president of Columbia Bible College. He watched CBC grow through prayer into a Bible College with its own campus in the heart of Columbia, and he looked forward through faith to coming days of expansion and "greater miracles than these." Dr. McQuilkin challenged the students ten years ago with this conclusion to a message on Hebrews 11: "Young people, go out and write a faith chapter of your own."

... and PRESENT

The present purpose for the existence of Columbia Bible College is the same purpose which prompted its establishment forty years ago: to train young people "to know Him and to make Him known." CBC has developed and grown only because the Lord has enabled its leaders to keep their eyes on this single goal.

Through its interdenominational position, CBC has sought to contribute unity to the Church of Jesus Christ without compromising with or condoning any positions or beliefs which are dishonoring to Him.

Since the fall of 1960, CBC has been operating on its new campus, six miles from Columbia. This year the Alumni Association took as its Thanksgiving Prayer Goal $100,000 toward the construction of the McQuilkin Memorial Administration building. An identical $100,000 goal for Thanksgiving, 1963, has already been set. Though many buildings which are urgently needed have not yet been constructed, that which we see so far reminds us daily that it is a "miracle" campus, a triumphal exhibit of God's abundant provision.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Devotional Life

in SPIRITUAL LIFE . . .

While desiring to maintain a high scholastic level in accordance with standard college requirements, CBC continues to recognize the paramount importance of spiritual preparation and the necessity of placing young Christians in a training environment in which they will yield to the molding of God's will. Accredited by the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges and recognized by the United States Office of Education, CBC has as the center of its curriculum the Word of God, offering at least sixteen Bible courses. To supplement the Christian's training, courses in education, religious education, music, missions, theology, foreign language, and many liberal arts are offered, with degrees of Biblical Education given. The Graduate School of Missions provides training on a graduate level leading to a degree of Master of Arts in Biblical Education or Bachelor of Divinity.

in CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Christian service, engaged in weekly by every CBC student, is presently our most obvious way of "Making Him Known." Those who are the Lord's long to tell others of Him, and CS assignments are designed to provide excellent opportunities for just that. Many methods and materials are used, but the message is always the same: Christ died to pardon sinners and free them from sin for a life of triumph!

in SOCIAL and ATHLETIC

Skit Nite

Open House

In a balanced and Christ-centered social life—the polish which finishes the construction of the complete man of God—profitable, lasting friendships are made. Part of "knowing Him" is learning to recognize and respect Him in others; and the first step in "making Him known" is showing forth His love toward fellow Christians. "In all that ye do in word or in deed, do all to the glory of God." This is living in TRIUMPH!

Class Social

DEVELOPMENT

Close competition and keen enthusiasm characterize CBC sports participation. Numerous sports (football, baseball, soccer, basketball, volleyball, tennis, weight-lifting, and many individual sports) provide energy outlets, relaxation, and body conditioning for all. In the midst of a world of books, the athletic courts and fields aid in teaching a truth which each growing Christian must realize: "The Lord for the body and the body for the Lord," "that in all things He might have the pre-eminence."

TRIUMPH in PURPOSE

The Direction Purpose of Columbia Bible College

It is the purpose of Columbia Bible College to provide a Christian education for men and women who are seeking to find in the Bible the truth that will lead them to God. The college is not a seminary, nor is it a school of divinity. It is a school of Bible study, where the Bible is interpreted by the Holy Spirit.

The college is a place where the Bible is studied on a high level, made a living reality, and where the student is enabled to find in the Bible the revelation of God's love and mercy to all men.

Looking Christ into the eyes of the world, the student of Columbia Bible College is enabled to see the world as it is, and to see the world as it should be. In the process of this study, the student is enabled to see the world as it is, and to see the world as it should be.

IN MEMORIAM

MABEL E. BRIGGS
1874 - 1962

Since August 17, 1962, our Miss Briggs has been present with her beloved Savior. Connected with the Bible College as an extension worker since 1926, Miss Briggs gave herself to prayer, witness, and love that she might reach the lost for Christ. Her life, one of constant giving, she has thus summarized, "It has been all grace, grace, grace." One who lived in triumph here now lives in the constant presence of the Triumphant One.

DEDICATION

Mr. Frank Sells is a man with a radiant personality, a booming voice, and an obvious love for Jesus Christ. He graduated from CBC in 1932 and from Dallas Theological Seminary in 1935. After a year in the pastorate, he returned to CBC in 1936 to teach Bible. In August, 1942, Mr. Sells, "most eligible bachelor of CBC," married Miss Amanda Dosser. For 27 years Mr. Sells has preached Christ to the students, exhorting, counseling, and befriending. None of the hundreds he has taught will forget this man who demonstrated in humble straight-forwardness the life of "the wanting to do and the doing of his good pleasure." Mr. Sells, we thank God for giving you to us for these years and wait with anticipation for every future ministry the Lord may have for us through you, whether teaching or writing.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

COLUMBIA BIBLE COLLEGE

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Seniors:

"Nothing succeeds like success," as the old saying goes -
"then thou shalt have good success" (Joshua 1:8).

Nothing is as victorious as victory -
"God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (I Cor. 15:57).

Nothing is as triumphant as triumph -
"God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ" (II Cor. 2:14).

Nothing delivers like deliverance -
"and the Lord saved them by a great deliverance" (I Chron. 11:14).

Nothing saves like salvation -
"Salvation is of the Lord" (Jonah 2:9).

Success, victory, triumph, deliverance, salvation -
all yours in Christ Jesus -
Accept no substitutes!

Yours in His triumph,

Activities

STUDENT

ASSOCIATION

Every student currently enrolled at Columbia Bible College is a member of the Student Association. The Association exists for one purpose - that of serving and being a blessing to each individual student.

The Student Council, representing the various organizations within the Association, cares for the business, decisions, and daily affairs of the Association.

The three Standing Sub-committees (Social, Program, Music), appointed by the President, plan and direct the varied activities of campus life.

The President and his officers, elected by the student body, work in conjunction with the organizations within the Student Association, direct the Student Council, and represent the student body to the faculty.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION OFFICERS: Chet Wood, Vice-President; Beth McClendon, Treasurer; Sue Roberts, Secretary; Jim Fasold, President.

The Christian Service Departments of Columbia Bible College in the past have been used as a pattern for service by the Accrediting Association for Bible Schools and Colleges. Under the combined operation of men's and women's Christian Service departments, students participate in nearly thirty distinct fields of ministry in an effort not only to train themselves for future service, but in a present concentrated outreach to glorify the Lord through seeing souls accept Christ and grow in His grace.

From the campus base the two directors, Miss Strauss and Mr. Petty, see students go out to take part in Bible Clubs, hospital visitation, church work, public school teaching, open air meetings, and a variety of other service opportunities. Whether in the Freshman Choir or on the Catawba Indian Reservation, CBC students continue to learn of Christ and serve Him "who always leadeth us in triumph."

MUSIC

MUSIC DEPARTMENT:

Convinced that music is essential to normal Christian life and growth, CBC offers many channels through which the Lord's "new song" can be expressed. For many years the Ambassador Choir (pictured above) has represented Jesus Christ and CBC and has held concerts all over the United States, from Vermont to Texas, from Florida to Illinois.

The Freshman Choir and Spanish

Choir complete the choral groups which represent the Christian Service department. Other choral groups which are assembled during the year as volunteer efforts are the Messiah Choir, and varying other seasonal cantata groups.

Individual music development is stressed as a basic need in Christian work today. Much opportunity, throughout the Southeast, as well as locally and on campus, is afforded for solo, instrumental, and small group music service opportunities.

FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

Part of FMF Project: VW bus for European Bible Institute, France.

Since 1936 when Columbia Bible College took an active part in the formation of the Student Foreign Missions Fellowship, FMF has been a vital part of CBC life.

FMF OFFICERS: Paul Bowers, President; Roberta Hunter, Treasurer; Mary Ann Stauffer, Secretary; David Linden, Vice-President.

Steering Committee

Guest Speaker

FMF objectives implicate each of us:

- 1) Every student recognizing and responding to the truth that every Christian has a personal responsibility in God's world missionary program.
- 2) Every student realistically facing the possibility that God wants him to serve on the neglected foreign fields.

- 3) Every student properly prepared, whether staying at home or going abroad, to serve God for foreign missions."

Through weekly prayer groups and missionary programs, students are able to begin active participation in God's missionary program. The simple purpose of FMF is expressed in its motto: "The Lord Jesus Christ unto the uttermost."

Senior Class Song: "Teach Me Thy Way"

"Teach Me Thy Way, O Lord"
Teach me thy way, O Lord; Teach me thy way.
Thy guiding grace afford; Teach me thy way.
Help me to walk aright, more by faith less by sight.
Lead me with heav'nly light; Teach me thy way.

When I am sad at heart, Teach me thy way.
When earthly joys depart, Teach me thy way.
In hours of loneliness, in times of dire distress,
In failure or success, Teach me thy way.

When doubts and fears arise; Teach me thy way.
When storms o'erspread the skies, Teach me thy way.
Shine through the cloud and rain, Thro' sorrow, toil and pain,
Make Thou my pathway plain; Teach me thy way.

Long as my life shall last; Teach me thy way.
Where'er my lot be cast; Teach me thy way.
Until the race is won: until the journey's done,
Until the Crown is won; Teach me thy way.
